

Starting Out

Key Vocabulary

VERBS

adjust
back out of buckle
look
put [put] into
sit [sat]
start
start out
turn

NOUNS

car
driver
driveway
friend
ignition
key
passenger
rear-view mirror
seat
seat belt
shoulder

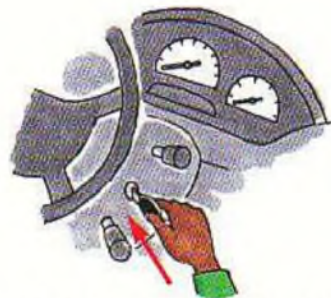

Kate sat in the driver's seat and her friends sat in the passenger seats.

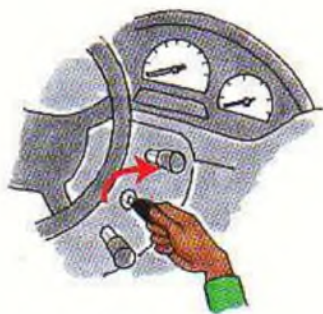

Kate adjusted her seat and the rear-view mirror.

She buckled her seat belt.

Kate put the key into the ignition,...

...turned the key...

...and started the car.

For Special Attention

- You adjust something by moving it or changing it until it is right.
- A driveway leads from the road to a building or a parking lot.
- The slot for a car's key is called the ignition. In other cases, "ignition" means "starting to burn," e.g., "The spark caused the ignition of the gas."

She looked over her shoulder...

...and backed out of the driveway.